

♪ You will be watching the recent concert. You will also be completing a writing assignment which will be graded. Read the following and get working! ☺

Your job:

You are a famous columnist and critic for a paper. Your job is to attend local concerts and report them to the public. Your critiques are read by hundreds who make their decision to attend a concert by your opinion of the performance. After observing the Wachter 8th grade choir concert, you need to express your thoughts, in detail, of the performance.

Length of column:

As long as you get your ideas across, your editor is not concerned with the length of your article. However, if you only write two sentences, the editor knows you did not share your complete thoughts with the public and there may be consequences (fired from your job, etc.)

Due date:

Your article is due at the end of the class period.

♪ You will be watching the recent concert. You will also be completing a writing assignment which will be graded. Read the following and get working! ☺

Your job:

You are a famous columnist and critic for a paper. Your job is to attend local concerts and report them to the public. Your critiques are read by hundreds who make their decision to attend a concert by your opinion of the performance. After observing the Wachter 8th grade choir concert, you need to express your thoughts, in detail, of the performance.

Length of column:

As long as you get your ideas across, your editor is not concerned with the length of your article. However, if you only write two sentences, the editor knows you did not share your complete thoughts with the public and there may be consequences (fired from your job, etc.)

Due date:

Your article is due at the end of the class period.